PERIOD ENDING 15 JUNE 1983

1. Progress Report on Tasks Assigned by the DCI/DDCI:

No tasks assigned during this reporting period.

2. Items or Events of Major Interest that have Occurred
During the Preceding Week:

a. LIMS

(1) Plans are proceeding for the briefing of more than  key OL and OF personnel on the content of system detailed requirements. The Management Information, General, and Requisition modules will be presented 16 June in 2C19 at 0900. The remaining modules will be presented on 23 June and 6 July, with a wrap-up session scheduled for 21 July. Users are to provide feedback to P&PS as these sessions continue. Briefings will be presented by SDG analysts who authored the requirements that will provide the basis for LIMS development.

c. Headquarters Claims Review Board

The U.S. Army Annual Claims Seminar is taking place this week (12-17 June 1983) at the Judge Advocate General's School in Charlottesville, Virginia. <input type="checkbox"/> attended Session I on 13 and 14 June, which covered personal property claims. Participants totalled 185, mostly from military installations (Army, Navy, Air Force, etc.) throughout the U.S. and from many foreign countries. Lectures, plus eight different workshops, provided much valuable information and insight regarding current trends/direction in handling and processing personal property claims as authorized under the Military Personnel and Civilian Employees' Claims Act of 1964. Both Agency employees felt that the program was well-organized and well-presented, and appreciated the opportunity to attend such a worthwhile seminar.	STAT
